

I dislike having to deal with cellphone discourtesy in church, in the movies, etc. You sit so close to one another on an airplane. It would be very uncomfortable to have to endure peoples conversations over the phone in these circumstances.